FRANKFORT, KY., June 28, 1884.
Editor Roundabout:

DEAR SIR: Can you or any of your readers inform the mechanics of Frankfort why and by what authority do the C. R. Mason Co., lessees of the Kentucky, bring out convicts to execute painting and other mechanical work on the Governor's palace and Warden's residence, and other private residences in this city? Are they not violating the plain letter of the law on the subject? Is this Democracy? Is this the kind of reform that they are constantly preaching to the mechanics and laboring men, and bringing convict labor in direct conflict, right here at the Capital of the State, with the mechanics and laborers of Frankfort? It is the first time in thirty years that this wrong has been done, and if I understand the law right the convict labor belongs to Mason & Co., and they have no right or power to thus use them. It is the law and duty of the State Librarian to advertise and receive bids for all work on the State's public buildings, and the keeper, State, or lessee has no right to even put in a bid against the honest laborer of the State. Has any State officer ordered otherwise? We, the laborers and mechanics, want to know if this is to be the policy of the present State administration to bring or order convicts to execute mechanic's work on the State buildings here at Frankfort. If so they can take them to all the charitable institutions of the State, at Lexington, Danville, Louisville, Anchorage, and Hopkinsville. Are the honest mechanics of all these cities ready and willing to see them thus employed? It is bad enough for us to have to compete with them inside the walls—and I insist that the State nor the present lessees or Warden can by law, work them outside the walls, except on public works, and for the purpose of obtaining raw material, such as wood, lumber and stone, to be used inside, and we earnestly but respectfully protest against this great and heinous wrong.

R. K. M'CLURE & BRO.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Bridgeport.

Little Stella Parrent has been quite sick this week.

Sam Crockett seems to be still gaining health and strength.

Borns.—June 20, 1884, to Judge R. Brown and wife, a son.

Regular services at Franklin Church tomorrow at half past 8 o'clock p. m.

Miss Maggie Gaines, of Louisville, is visiting friends and relatives in this section.

Wheat, rye and clover harvest is now engaging the attention of the farmer.

Mrs. Dr. Chinn remains quite ill, though perhaps some better than she was last week.

Mr. Jas. Jackson and family, of Illinois, are the guests of his brother, Mr. J. W. Jackson, and family.

Several ladies and gentlemen of this place attended divine worship at Graceland and Buffalo, Shelby county, last Sunday.

Mrs. Marjann Gaines, who has been residing with her sister, in Mercer county for several months, is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Education being the all-absorbing topic of the day, would it not be a good idea for the local papers in each county to devote a column to the interesting subject? What say you Mr. Editor?

[Our columns are open for the purpose.—Ed.]

Pursuant to a call, several teachers of this county assembled in Frankfort June 21st, 1884, and organized the Franklin county Teachers' association by the selection of Commissioner John S. Harrod, President; Tyler E. Uterback and Thos. Hunter, Committee on Programmes; C. H. Parrent, Sec'y; Miss Lulu Ward, Assistant Sec'y.

Committee on Constitution and By-laws, Col. Thos. B. Ford, Tyler Uterback and Thos. Hunter. Committee on Programmes, C. H. Parrent, Tyler Uterback and Thos. Hunter. Col. R. D. Allen President of the State Teachers' Association, addressed the Association on the subject of "Union of Teachers." It was a masterly effort, well deserving the careful consideration of all present. Prof. Pleckett, Sup. Public Instruction, also addressed the meeting in a brief, pointed speech, on the same subject. Mrs. Walter Franklin read an essay on the subject of temperance, which by request will be published in several of the leading educational journals.

Col. Ford presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted: That we return to Col. R. D. Allen, President of the State Teachers' Association, our thanks for his interest in the cause of public education, especially in the publication of the newspaper called "Kentucky Education." The next meeting will be held on the 21st Saturday in July, 1884, in the Public School building in Frankfort, at which time and place all the teachers in the county are earnestly requested to be present.

Polsgrove.

Mr. Ben McDonald has the finest garden that we have seen.

The farmers are about through setting tobacco and are making ready for harvest.

We are for Cleveland and McDonald for President and Vice President next to Tilden and Hendricks.

This is a good time to sell winter overcoats. The store keepers here say this the coldest country this side the Kentucky river.

The corn in this section is looking fine. One of our farmers told us that his corn was over his head. We will go to his field for early roasting ears.

The prettiest man in our township is Barnett Harrod; the laziest man is John Rily, and John Polsgrove is the ugliest man we know of in the whole county.

We have a number one blacksmith here. His name is S. M. Swetnam, from Monterey, and he is the courting man of the town. Come to see him when you want your horse shod.

Our merchants are doing a very good business. We have two stores here, one a general dry goods and grocery carried on by Heid & Combs, and the other a grocery carried on by Joseph Peyton.

If the weather continues to turn cold we think we can go skating by the 4th of July. The Kentucky river has in light skin on it. If it should freeze thick enough we will come to Frankfort on skates to the picnic.

We have two steamboats plying between Frankfort and Louisville, the good steamers Horner and Fannie Freese, and we understand that Capt. S. V.

Pence has bought the City of Frankfort, which will take the place of the Little Freese. We regret to see the Fannie leave us.

Base ball is booming down here. They play every Saturday. It don't get too hot to play ball. A lazy run for a good ball player. That is the case with our team. We claim to have the best nine in Franklin county. It is called the Mr. Carmel Eclipse. If any of the ball men should want us to beat them just drop our captain a note to that effect at this office.

CAPTAIN.

Plum Branch.

We have had a fine tobacco season. Chickens are all dying in this section.

There is a fine prospect for a good wheat crop.

Corn looks very well but the weeds look better.

Let everybody come to the Sunday-school at Antioch.

Mr. Robert Owens left Sunday morning for Louisville.

Rumor says there is going to be a wedding in the near future.

The turnpike company will re-build the toll-house that was burned some time ago.

Mr. Jesse Moore has a patent fence around his tobacco patch, which he calls a rice-fence.

There was a meeting at Antioch last Saturday night and Sunday at eleven o'clock. There was one addition to the Church. Little Walter Stivers made the good confession.

STEP AND FETCHIT.

Burford Town.

Bird Dotson has the finest colt in this part of the world.

Born.—On June 1st to G. L. Rodgers and wife, a fine boy.

The farmers made good use of the fine tobacco season we have had.

Mr. Moses Harrod has gotten his mill completed at last and ground his first grist Friday of last week.

Joseph Parls has a father, mother, step-father, step-mother, mother-in-law and father-in-law all living. If anyone body knows of a man better supplied with parents let them trot him out.

Friend was mistaken about Mrs. Mildred Rodgers being very low. She is up and able to do her own housework. He was also mistaken in saying that Suse Samples died Sunday two weeks ago, as it was Sarah.

Squire Tracy has been putting some much needed repairs upon his home which improve its appearance very much. He has not built an office or court-house as reported. We presume the reason the Squire is plucked at so much is because the most clubs are found under the best apple tree.

RUSTY COSS.

Antioch.

Prof J. R. Fears of Sadleville, Scott county, was at Antioch last Sunday.

Hot weather, fine time for killing weeds, and our farmers are taking advantage of it.

Elder Polk South preaches at Antioch to-morrow at 11 a. m. The Sunday-school will meet hereafter at 9 a. m., instead of 3 p. m.

Our neighborhood had no representative at court last week; they having no business, and not being professional jurors, remained at home attending to their crops.

There was a large audience at Antioch last Sunday to hear Bro. William Smith, who gave us an excellent sermon. Every one we heard speak of it spoke in the highest terms of praise.

Harvest will soon be here, and the cry is the scarcity of good hounds. Now is the chance for the farmers and grubbers about the hard times and scarcity of money to leave their haunts and ruralize for a few days.

Will our kind Editor please state, when the election for County Judge, Assessor, Jailor, etc., will take place, as there is great difference of opinion about it.

[August, 1885, is when the election will have.—Ed.]

The F. & C. Turnpike company are building a new toll-house on the site of the one which was destroyed by fire last winter. Mr. F. M. Conway architect and contractor, assisted by Messrs. Powell and Frank Moore. Its architectural beauty and workmanship reflects great credit upon the gentlemen above named.

What about the bridge over Stoney Creek on the Flat Creek pike, are you have it? Now is the time to build it. We don't let not have been better for the company to have built the bridge than the toll-house, as they had a good toll house owned and occupied by the company. Query—Is a pike in good traveling condition without bridges? Can it legally collect toll without bridges? Can it legally collect toll for the full length of the pike? Look to your interest, gentlemen.

The teachers association of Franklin county was organized last Saturday but it is not a fact that it is of sixty old teachers of this county, less than one third show by their actions that they are interested in their profession. What is the matter? Are you ashamed of your profession, or is it the mere mercenary motive of old class and caste that has made you enter the ranks of teachers, or what is worse, are you making it a stepping stone to something else? If either of these, then in the name of all that is just and honorable resign your position and let the world know that you will no longer act the hypocrite, for one who will teach for either of these motives is unworthy the name of teacher and the confidence of the people. There are some who we believe had good and valid reasons for not being present last Saturday, but will they not turn out the 1st Saturday (the 26th of July) and let it be known that you feel some interest in your profession? Those who were not present last Saturday missed a treat in not hearing the addresses of Col. R. D. Allen and Prof. Pleckett also the beautiful and interesting essay of Mrs. Franklin.

We wish to state here that all the teachers of the county, whether private or common school, city or county, all who wear the honorable title of teacher and are not ashamed of it are cordially and earnestly invited to join with us and help us to improve ourselves. We also invite all true friends of education to meet with us.
